The law of evidence, also known as the rules of evidence, encompasses the rules and legal principles that govern the proof of facts in a legal proceeding. These rules determine what evidence must or must not be considered by the trier of fact in reaching its decision. The trier of fact is a judge in bench trials, or the jury in any cases involving a jury. The law of evidence is also concerned with the quantum, quality, and type of proof needed to prevail in litigation. The rules vary depending u

~~Evidence (law) – Wikipedia~~

The law of evidence provides rules as to who can be called as a witness (and by which party in proceedings) to give evidence (competence) and who must give evidence if called to do so (compellability). The rules of evidence also dictate the type of questions which may be asked of a particular witness depending upon the party calling them.
